Between dates stated above, detectives detailed for investigation into this crime, have continued their enquiries, and although information has been obtained to the effect that this assassination was instigated by the occupants of 35 Edinburgh Road, yet no definite proof in support of this information is forthcoming.

115
According to the information received, it would appear that the late Det. Inspt. had for some time prior to his death been harassing these people through his repeated investigations into their activities and that although they had tried to approach him with the promise of a monthly subsidy he had refused to accept same. This refusal apparently raised the ire of the officer i/o of "35" and it was at his instigation the assassination was carried out.

As already mentioned nothing in the way of definite proof has been obtained to support this information, hence until such time as this proof can be obtained, this case is respectfully submitted for classification.

On the morning of 28-4-40 an inquest was held on the body of the late Det. Impr. Loh Kung Sung (陸根生) at the General Undertakers, Changping Road, and after all evidence had been heard the following verdict was handed down by Procurator Deng Pei Yuan (唐沛元) :-

" Death due to bullet wounds, body to be removed by deceased's brother Det. Sgt.

Loh Kung Dee (陸根弟) for burial. "

The personal property of deceased was returned to his brother on the 28-4-40.

With reference to the .32 Automatic Browning pistol No. 17684, used in the assassination of the deceased and subsequently seized by the Police at the scene of the crime, same on being examined by the Arms Identification Section was found to have the following past history :-

It would appear that in September 1939, this pistol which then bore number No. "745", was licensed by the Shanghai Municipal Police in the name of Mr. Yau Kung Kung (俞鴻鈞), then Counsellor to the Municipality of Greater Shanghai and that in December 1941, this license number Y. 2894 was cancelled, the pistol being retained by the licensee.

On the 15-2-36, in the course of rounding up a gang of "Armed Robbers", detectives attached to Hongkew Station raided a straw hut off Hang Fong Road, Chapei, and amongst other things seized an empty cartridge case and bullet, which on examination was found to have been fired from above mentioned pistol, however the weapon in question was never found (See Hongkew Misc. 112/36). Investigation into this angle of the case will be made the subject of a further diary.

As previously mentioned this pistol, on being presented for licensing in September 1935, bore makers No. "762" and later S.M. Police No. Y. 2884, however on being seized on the 27-4-40, the former number was found to have been altered to "27624" by adding the 1 and 4 at either end, whilst the latter number was found to have been erased.

The last occasion on which this pistol came to the notice of the U.M. Police was on the 27th February 1940, when as result of a raid made on premises located at House No. 17, Sang Ka Lok (沈家宅), West Yan An Ping (西潞安坪), off Quessant Avenue, Ya Tsun Road, by the British Military, thirteen male Chinese were arrested, nine pistols and a certain document showing the allocation of various firearms to the group were seized.

These persons, on being questioned by Crime Branch Headquarters Staff, confessed to be members of the 3rd Section, 2nd Defence Company of the Special Service Section of the Chung Kuo Kuomintang Anti-Comintern & National Salvation Army, with sub-headquarters at 35 Edinburgh Road under the command of one named Zao Bang Zung (趙明程), and Headquarters at 76 Jessfield Road under Woo Sa Pan (胡善保), also the aforesaid document, on being translated, was found to contain the following additional information :-

As can be seen from the foregoing list, pistol No. 17031 is described as a "6 " pistol", and as it is commonly known that in the past the Chinese Authorities have always referred to a Chinese make imitation Browning in this manner there appears little doubt, but that the pistol seized and that mentioned in this list are one and the same, however in order to further corroborate this fact, the person responsible for the compiling of this list, who is still in custody of the G.H. Police, was interviewed on the afternoon of 30-4-40 and as a result he verified the fact that it was one and the same pistol (Statement attached).

In view of these disclosures the above mentioned prisoner was further questioned as to why this pistol had not been seized at the time of arrest by the British Military and he, in replying, stated that in all probability same was then being kept at 35 Edinburgh Road, from which address all pistols were then issued.

According to the list in question, this particular pistol was issued to one named Chiang Vang Ling (蔣鳳林), who was arrested along with the prisoner already mentioned, but, who unfortunately has already been disposed of, hence no further corroboration can be had from him.

The foregoing facts more or less definitely establish from which source the pistol used in this crime originated, however up to the present it is still too premature to voice any definite opinion re the motive for the assassination of deceased and with this end in view enquiries are now being continued.

My name etc. is as above.

I was arrested by the British Military on February 27th 1940, at No.17 Sung Ka Zuh, Crescent Avenue, Ya Yuen Road, along with twelve others.

I identify the document shown to me, as the original record of firearms allotted to our group by Zau Bang Zung (趙邦宗) officer i/c, with Headquarters at 35 Edinburgh Road. This particular document was completed by me on or about November 1939.

I further identify the 6" pistol No. 17624, (now being shown to me), as similar to the one which I entered in this document under No. 17624.

The only excuse I can offer for this pistol not being seized at time of the raid by British Military is that it must have been returned to 35 Edinburgh Road and another issued in its stead.

This is my true statement.

S.P.C. 1276 patrolling 6 Beat "A" Section states that when near the corner of Taku and Chengtu Road he heard the sound of shots being fired, he ran to the scene and observing a male Chinese lying on the ground he blew his Police whistle at the same time, on directions given by neighbouring shop keepers ran to Lane 33 Chengtu Road in which the assassin had made his escape. D.I. Loh when questioned in hospital prior to his death was unable to speak, and in answer to questions indicated that there was only one man responsible for the crime and that he did not recognise him.

Enquiries in the vicinity located several witnesses of the crime, they were brought to the Station and statements taken (attached). All these witnesses state that after the first shot was fired their attention was attracted and they observed the male Chinese in foreign dress shoot D.I. Loh in the back and then after discarding the pistol, run into alleyway 33 Chengtu Road, this alleyway has another entrance, Lane 411 Taku Road, and it was probably by this alleyway that the assassin made good his escape. Immediately after the crime detectives made enquiries at all houses in this alleyway but none of the occupants could give any information to Police.

In an effort to discover some motive for the crime and the murderer, the effects of D.I. Loh were searched, on his person was found 2-210 notes, 8-35 notes, 30-21 notes, small money amounting to 21.42, on Sincere Co. cheque for 210, 2 Japanese military notes for 50 sen and 10 sen, also a number of personal papers.

His desk at H'ell Station was searched and the contents brought to this station. These were scrutinized by P. S. Therasyn and Clerk Lin Chin-koo (C.H.) and were found to include a number of pamphlets and addresses of various "Hua Hing" or organizations. The home of his concubine Lon Van-ai Young (L. Y. Loh at his home being examined a number of papers of a political nature were found. These along with those found in the desk at H'ell Station have been taken by P. S. Therasyn for translation.

The female Lon Van-ai Young who was brought to the Station for questioning stated that she had known P. I. Loh for the past five years and she became his concubine on the advice of her father, who was an informer of Loh. He established her in a room at 49/1462 Ave. Rd. The late P. There does not appear to be any question in the case of any mental abnormality.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of S.P.I. 1276 Woo Hai Tung.
 native of _____ taken by me himself.
 at H. Rd. Stn. on the 27 4/40. translated and interpreted by Interpreter Sng.

S.P.I. 1276 Woo Hai Tung states as follows :-

In the 27/4/40 I was on ordinary duty and was detailed to patrol No. 6 East 1st Section, from 3 - 7 p.m. At about 5.10 p.m. whilst I was at the entrance to the Nam Kya Mah near Toku Road, I suddenly heard 4 pistol shots. I immediately rushed to the scene and upon arrival, I observed a male Chinese lying on the roadway beside No. 33 Chengtu Road. I was informed by a policeman at the scene that the assassin had disappeared into Lane 33 Chengtu Road, so I immediately blew my police whistle and simultaneously ran into Lane No. 33 in order to chase him, but I could not find him, he having already disappeared prior to my entering into the lane. I then returned to the scene and reported the case to the station by telephone. Following this, I made a search in the vicinity which resulted in a pistol loaded with one round of ammunition being found abandoned at a place about 15 yards away from Lane 46 Chengtu Road, and in addition I also picked up a letter which was lying at a place about 15 yards away from the place where the pistol was found.

When I was blowing the whistle, S.P.I. 127 who was on traffic duty at the intersection of Chengtu Road and Ave. Koch, rushed to the scene, and following his arrival, I then went to ring up station by street telephone No. 7. A few moments later a party of detectives arrived and S.P.R. ambulance attended in which the injured person was removed to the Police Hospital for treatment.

My name is Karnail Singh son of Nauts Singh Village Sarsingh Post Office Sarsingh District Lahore. I am attached to Chengtu Road Police Station.

On the afternoon of 27-4-40, I was detailed for traffic post duty at the corner of Avenue Koch and Chengtu Road (Post No. 4) between the hours of 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.

At about 5.30 p.m. whilst I was on duty, I heard the report of pistol shots being fired, my attention was immediately attracted by these reports which sounded as though they had been fired at point on Chengtu Road near Taku Road. I immediately left my post and proceeded running in a Northerly direction along Chengtu Road in order to enquire. After running about 50 yards I observed a male Chinese dressed in a dark coloured foreign style suit running towards me, the latter was carrying a pistol in his right hand and was approximately 20 yards away from me, on the same side of the road as I was on (East).

The male Chinese who apparently also noticed me proceeding towards him, immediately discarded his pistol and turned into an alleyway. I made my way, direct to the discarded pistol where I was met by C.P.C. 1276 who picked up same. This C.P.C. and I then proceeded together to the corner of Avenue Koch and Chengtu Road where the C.P.C. telephoned the station from St. telephone box No. 7 reporting the matter.

The above is my true statement.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of Wang Hui Tsung native of Shanghai taken by Det. Zhang at Ch. Rd. Stn. on the 7/4/40. and translated by Interpreter Eng.

Wang Hui Tsung, age 43, native of Shanghai, proprietor of the Wang Hui Shin shop, No. 53 Chengtu Road.

At about 5.30 a.m. 7/4/40, while I was sitting in the shop near the counter reading newspapers, I suddenly heard about 7 or 8 pistol shots. I immediately looked out on the roadway and observed a person of strong build, staggering on the pavement opposite my shop. He waved his hand in order to attract attention, but all the police officers refused to take him, and he then collapsed onto the ground. Simultaneously I observed the assassin walk away south with a star in his mouth and a pistol in his right hand. He (the assassin) was wearing navy blue civilian clothes, and his description is as follows: about 40, medium build, round face, sallow complexion. I observed him discard his pistol at a place about 15 yards away from the scene, and insert his left hand into his jacket pocket from which he took out a letter and threw onto the roadway. Following this, he continued to walk south but later ran into Lane No. 37 Chengtu Road upon seeing the approach of a P.C. who was on traffic duty at the intersection of Ave. Poch and Chengtu Road.
